

Your SolePath is your Sub-conscious self, and it is the reason you behave the way that you do. Your SolePath governs your behaviour and regulates your response to everything that impacts your life.

SolePath connects you with your gifts and greatness so that you can live with purpose and learn how to serve and make a difference in the world. Take a minute to prepare yourself metaphysically to read about who you were born to be.

Breathe in and breathe out, imagine that you are inside a shell, like the shell of an egg, and place your focus on this safe, exterior covering. Breathe in and breathe out, and express thankfulness for who you are, for your charismatic self and the life you are living. You are safe and All is Well.

Your SolePath is a braid of two LightPaths and one DarkPath. One of your LightPaths is Charismatic Leader Here's how it works ... Charismatic is the Category, which is the overall guide to how you interact with the world; Leader is the SolePath, which reveals your gifts and greatness.

Your Charismatic Leader is entwined with one other LightPath to reveal your special, individual and completely unique gifts; and your DarkPath, which is your place of personal growth.

As a Charismatic Leader, your most effective learning comes when you take the time to review, reflect and observe. You are a visual learner who responds best when the learning is relevant to you and your life experience. While processing this information on your SolePath reflect back on your real life experiences; as a child, as a teenager, with your family, at work, in any other key life moments. Recall those moments when you felt connected to this Charismatic Leader; and when you felt disconnected. It may be helpful to use visual reminders such as your photographs, or other images.

It will also add to your experience to not only read about your Charismatic Leader but to watch the video and listen to the audio on SolePath.org.

Charismatic Category

Charismatics are the world's 'sparkle' people. You simply light up our world.

With your outgoing sensing and perception, just like a bat you are able to interpret the returning echoes from life. You respond to people, places and experiences by how you sense the world is responding to you. You use others as a mirror for yourself and have an innate sense of how people are reacting to you. You interpret the returning echoes and reflect back what you sense.

Your ability to judge situations keeps you safe because you are an incredible judge of character and you rarely make mistakes in your assessments. You get into difficulty when you don't trust this or allow the opinions of others to get in the way.

How does knowing that you are a Charismatic SolePath guide you?

SolePath gives a framework to your life; it is the compass for navigation and guidance and making the best decisions. SolePath is the means for navigation over the course of your lifetime. When faced with decisions about people, experiences and opportunities, your SolePath is your reliable guide to peace and joy.

The Guidance System for Charismatics is your Sensing. You can really, really trust your outgoing sensing and perception and your uncanny ability to read situations, people and experiences quickly and accurately. Remember you are greatly impacted by interactions with others and what is going on around you. Rely on your instincts and perception as you reflect back and respond to what you are sensing.

The Key Life Experience for you as a Charismatic is learning to Understand your Energy. SolePath uncovers the way that your Soul intended to experience this life and as a Charismatic you are learning to trust your outward sensing, like a bat when it is flying.

Insights into your Charismatic Key life Experience. You have an outward focus and are people centred. Your instincts and ability to perceive what is actually going on around you are impeccable. This sometimes gets a bit tangled up with what others think and feel about you – so understanding what is 'yours' and what it 'theirs' is very important to your sense of self and sometimes might be difficult for you to untangle. As one of the worlds 'sparkle' people you have big energy and understanding when it is appropriate to turn your light on or off, or when you can't be the centre of attention, is part of your life's journey.

Easy Tools for integrating your Charismatic Leader into your life:

1. Place your attention and focus onto yourself and from within your protective shell assess people, experiences and opportunities. Really tune into your perception before allowing the opinions and energy of others to get in the way.

2. The Key Communication Words for Charismatics are Sense and Reflect. These are words that will help you to respond to life from your LightPaths, from your place of expanded energy. Here's how you and your loved ones can use these words to engage your LightPath instincts. Ask ...
 - What is being reflected here?
 - Am I reflecting someone else's truth, or is this my instinct? Is it 'mine' or 'theirs'?
 - What am I sensing?
 - Do I have a sense of the impact of my 'big' energy?

Simply using these LightPath or expanding energy words will put you in your light and help you interact and respond to life in a positive way.

- 3. Taking Care of Yourself includes a focus on Self Image and Self Care. You are self-confident and you look great and light up a room, so spending time and effort on your image is as fun as it is essential. Equally important is surrounding yourself with those who really understand your 'big' personality and having a safe haven where you can relax and turn your light off without judgment.

There are five Charismatic SolePaths, the Adventurer, Gladiator, Influencer, Leader and Performer.

Leader SolePath

As a Charismatic Leader, you show others the way by your example. You are charismatic, believable and fun to be around. Your excitement about life is infectious. You understand people, their attitudes and motivation and have an incredible ability to think on your feet.

Your Core Energy as a Charismatic Leader is: Leading Others and Sparkle and Charisma. This Core Energy represents those positive core values deep within you that create an expansion of your energy; that create positive outcomes.

Being a Charismatic Leader means being born to lead – you simply gather a crowd. A bit like the movie character Forest Gump who decided to run and turned around to find that he had gathered a full following. They didn't know why he was running, or where he was going – but they simply felt drawn to follow him. That's a born Leader.

One of the greatest energy tools we can use in life is an "I Am ..." statement. In ancient cultures, the word for God was the same as "I Am", that's just how powerful it is.

State:

"I Am a Charismatic Leader"

and read just how amazing you really are.

A 'Sparkle' SolePath, I respond to the world through my perception of how you respond to me. My sense of self is governed by my interpretation of what you think of me – what I do and who I am.

Who am I?

Mine is the charismatic SolePath. I get excited about life; I get others excited about life and lead from the front. I am charismatic and can usually sell anyone my ideas. I have an extraordinary talent for getting things started, but am not so good with the follow-through.

I understand people and have the ability to understand their attitudes and motivations. I suppose I read people like a book and am typically a couple of steps ahead of them. I may sometimes stretch the rules to get things done; anyway I feel most of those rules do nothing for society.

I move fast, I talk fast, I have style and love the good things in life. I don't always have a plan, I think on my feet and usually achieve what I want to. I am a good decision maker who likes to get things done – I get really impatient with what seems to be irrelevant theory.

I love to have fun and don't shy away from the limelight. I get bored easily in my work and home life, and need to keep moving. I hate being restricted or confined.

What am I doing here?

My Joy comes from being a leader of society; I show others the way and lead by example. People find me charismatic, believable and look up to me. People follow me; I just seem to gather a crowd.

I have found that I have been 'leading' others since I can remember. From an early age I have found myself in charge of others and have often wondered how it happened. It just comes naturally to me to be the leader and get others to follow me.

I have no difficulty looking at the facts, quickly deciding what needs to be done and then moving forward.

Here is a list of ALL of the great things that are true about you.
