

Your SolePath is your Sub-conscious self, and it is the reason you behave the way that you do. Your SolePath governs your behaviour and regulates your response to everything that impacts your life.

SolePath connects you with your gifts and greatness so that you can live with purpose and learn how to serve and make a difference in the world. Take a minute to prepare yourself metaphysically to read about who you were born to be.

Breathe in and breathe out, imagine that you are inside a shell, like the shell of an egg, and place your focus on this safe, exterior covering. Breathe in and breathe out, and express thankfulness for who you are, for your charismatic self and the life you are living. You are safe and All is Well.

Your SolePath is a braid of two LightPaths and one DarkPath. One of your LightPaths is Charismatic Performer. Here's how it works ... Charismatic is the Category, which is the overall guide to how you interact with the world; Performer is the SolePath, which reveals your gifts and greatness.

Your Charismatic Performer is entwined with one other LightPath to reveal your special, individual and completely unique gifts; and your DarkPath, which is your place of personal growth.

As a Charismatic Performer, your most effective learning comes when you take the time to review, reflect and observe. You are a visual learner who responds best when the learning is relevant to you and your life experience. While processing this information on your SolePath reflect back on your real life experiences; as a child, as a teenager, with your family, at work, in any other key life moments. Recall those moments when you felt connected to this Charismatic Performer; and when you felt disconnected. It may be helpful to use visual reminders such as your photographs, or other images.

It will also add to your experience to not only read about your Charismatic Performer but to watch the video and listen to the audio on SolePath.org.

Charismatic Category

Charismatics are the world's 'sparkle' people. You simply light up our world.

With your outgoing sensing and perception, just like a bat you are able to interpret the returning echoes from life. You respond to people, places and experiences by how you sense the world is responding to you. You use others as a mirror for yourself and have an innate sense of how people are reacting to you. You interpret the returning echoes and reflect back what you sense.

Your ability to judge situations keeps you safe because you are an incredible judge of character and you rarely make mistakes in your assessments. You get into difficulty when you don't trust this or allow the opinions of others to get in the way.

How does knowing that you are a Charismatic SolePath guide you?

SolePath gives a framework to your life; it is the compass for navigation and guidance and making the best decisions. SolePath is the means for navigation over the course of your lifetime. When faced with decisions about people, experiences and opportunities, your SolePath is your reliable guide to peace and joy.

The Guidance System for Charismatics is your Sensing. You can really, really trust your outgoing sensing and perception and your uncanny ability to read situations, people and experiences quickly and accurately. Remember you are greatly impacted by interactions with others and what is going on around you. Rely on your instincts and perception as you reflect back and respond to what you are sensing.

The Key Life Experience for you as a Charismatic is learning to Understand your Energy. SolePath uncovers the way that your Soul intended to experience this life and as a Charismatic you are learning to trust your outward sensing, like a bat when it is flying.

Insights into your Charismatic Key life Experience. You have an outward focus and are people centred. Your instincts and ability to perceive what is actually going on around you are impeccable. This sometimes gets a bit tangled up with what others think and feel about you – so understanding what is 'yours' and what it 'theirs' is very important to your sense of self and sometimes might be difficult for you to untangle. As one of the worlds 'sparkle' people you have big energy and understanding when it is appropriate to turn your light on or off, or when you can't be the centre of attention, is part of your life's journey.

Easy Tools for integrating your Charismatic Performer into your life:

1. Place your attention and focus onto yourself and from within your protective shell assess people, experiences and opportunities. Really tune into your perception before allowing the opinions and energy of others to get in the way.
2. The Key Communication Words for Charismatics are Sense and Reflect. These are words that will help you to respond to life from your LightPaths, from your place of expanded energy. Here's how you and your loved ones can use these words to engage your LightPath instincts. Ask ...
 - What is being reflected here?
 - Am I reflecting someone else's truth, or is this my instinct? Is it 'mine' or 'theirs'?
 - What am I sensing?
 - Do I have a sense of the impact of my 'big' energy?

Simply using these LightPath or expanding energy words will put you in your light and help you interact and respond to life in a positive way.

3. Taking Care of Yourself includes a focus on Self Image and Self Care. You are self-confident and you look great and light up a room, so spending time and effort on your image is as fun as it is essential. Equally important is surrounding yourself with those who really understand your 'big' personality and having a safe haven where you can relax and turn your light off without judgment.

There are five Charismatic SolePaths, the Adventurer, Gladiator, Influencer, Leader and Performer.

Performer SolePath

As a Charismatic Performer, the world is your stage. You love the limelight and being recognized and admired for your talent. You really must have an audience and are spontaneous and fun-loving. You love sensation and drama and have the great gift of living in the moment.

Your Core Energy as a Charismatic Performer is: Performing and Entertaining and being an Extrovert. This Core Energy represents those positive core values deep within you that create an expansion of your energy; that create positive outcomes.

Being a Charismatic Performer means that you understand that your life is a movie and you have the ability to rewrite the script at any moment. You do love to be the lead actor and direct your supporting cast and entertain your audience. You are really fun to be around.

One of the greatest energy tools we can use in life is an "I Am ..." statement. In ancient cultures, the word for God was the same as "I Am", that's just how powerful it is.

State:

"I Am a Charismatic Performer" and read just how amazing you really are.

A 'Sparkle' SolePath, I respond to the world through my perception of how you respond to me. My sense of self is governed by my interpretation of what you think of me – what I do and who I am.

Who am I?

My SolePath is all about 'me'! I love the limelight and being admired for my talent. I like to be the centre of attention and only feel alive when I have an audience – even if it is only one person.

I am spontaneous and I know how to have fun. I am always upbeat and can lift the spirits of anyone; I am a very warm person and treat everyone as if they were my best friend (now you know why I was the most popular person at school).

I can be dedicated to my talent because I understand that this is why people admire me.

I love people and with my strong interpersonal skills will talk to anyone. I love new experiences, including conversations with new people, and can make them feel like they are the most important person in the world to me at that moment. I love sensation and drama. In fact I love to have people around me all the time.

I feel quite stressed and unhappy when I am isolated from people and when I have too much time to think I become quite morose. I live in the moment and want to be performing every single minute. I live a fast paced life and I am always on the go and need lots of diversity.

What am I doing here?

My Joy comes from creating joy for others when I perform. The entire world is my stage and I am very good at putting on a show for others.

I bring beauty to the world and I love natural beauty.
